

Refunds of Financial Aid

The University refunds financial aid (e.g., scholarships, grants, and loans) via electronic deposit directly to your personal checking or savings account. If you have not done so already, we encourage all students to enroll in eRefund.

Note 1 - Transaction Date

The Transaction Date is the date your refund was created in BARC. See Settlement Date for anticipated date your funds will be available in your personal checking or savings account. The Transaction Date appears on MyBARC Transaction Detail and Refund Information tabs.

Note 2 - Settlement Date

The Settlement Date is the anticipated date that your funds will be available in your personal checking or savings account.

Note 3 - Delivery Date

The Delivery Date is the estimated date your check should arrive at your local mailing address. The actual delivery date may vary. We strongly encourage you to enroll in eRefund so that future refunds will settle directly into your personal checking or savings account.
